

Media Raises Freedom Concerns

By Staff Reporter

Media practitioners in Botswana have raised concerns over proposed amendments that could restrict access to public information. Editors say the changes would make it harder to hold public officials accountable ahead of the next reporting cycle. The Botswana Editors Forum said it had written to the Ministry requesting urgent consultations on the matter. To Page 2

Batanani Walk Targets Child Protection

By Community Correspondent

Hundreds of residents took part in the annual Batanani Walk over the weekend, raising awareness about child protection services available in the district. Organisers said proceeds from the walk would go towards a local shelter for vulnerable children.

ADVERTISEMENT

Best prices on used cars! Call 71234567 today for a free quote on your next vehicle purchase.

From Page 1: The Ministry has not yet responded to the Forum's request. Civil society groups have echoed the call for transparency, warning that reduced access to information could undermine oversight of public spending.

Batswana Athletes Prepare for Regionals

By Sports Desk

The national athletics team departs this weekend for the regional championships, with officials expressing confidence in a strong medal haul across the sprint and field events.